GERMANY MUST REPENT BEFORE ENTERING LEAGUE

France Opposed To Enemy
Admission at Present
Time.

By the Associated Press
PARIS, Nov. 12.—The French government is unalterably opposed to the admission of Germany to the league of nations at this time, it was stated at the foreign office today. Some "drastic" action would be a consequence if the league voted to admit Germany, it was admitted.
The foreign office said there had been conversations with Great Britain on the subject and one Britisher who had been inclined to favor German membership in the league had now accepted the French viewpoint, apparently allowing the matter to rest for the present.
In as much as Germany has not applied for league membership, it is considered unlikely there will be any effort to promote success to get the assembly at Geneva to act favorably on the question of Germany's admission at this time.
The French hold that Germany must prove her intention to fulfill the terms of the peace treaty and live peaceably with her neighbors before seeking membership and they contend that there has not yet been sufficient time for them to become convinced regarding Germany's attitude along these lines.

PRIEST PRAISED SOLDIERS—IS GIVEN BEATING

By the Associated Press
LONDON, Nov. 12.—Serious rioting has occurred at Geneva, Italy, according to a Milan dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. A priest is said to have been severely beaten during a church ceremony at which he praised Italian soldiers, and a general strike followed the arrest of having participated in the disorder. A strike has been called at Porenza, a town in the Apennines.

STATE SOCIAL WORKERS TO MEET

Mrs. Snead To Represent
Ada in Conference at Tulsa.

Mrs. Orville Snead, executive secretary of the Pontotoc county chapter of Red Cross and secretary of the United Charities association, will attend the Oklahoma State conference of social work to be held in Tulsa, November 14, 15 and 16. She will leave here Saturday afternoon, and will be gone until Wednesday.
The conference will be held in the city hall at Tulsa, and will be attended by social welfare workers from all parts of the state. The opening session Sunday afternoon will be devoted to opening addresses by prominent representatives of the leading churches and educational institutions in the state.
The first session Monday will come under the head of "The Family." There will be discussions on food, problems, malnutrition of school children, budget planning for the home, housing problems, neighborhood problems, dependent mothers, marriage laws, unmarried mothers and illegitimate children, and the poor.
Monday afternoon's session will be devoted to health problems.
Monday night Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania will address the meeting. Monday night's session will take up the child problem in the community.
Delinquents and defectives will be discussed and studied at Tuesday's session. Tuesday afternoon the program will be devoted to organization of social forces.
Every phase of social welfare work will be discussed and studied. Mrs. Snead told a News representative. Better means of meeting many of the problems which daily confront us will be sought, she says. Mrs. Snead has accomplished a world of good work in her capacity as secretary of the two welfare organizations in Ada.

Car and Gasoline Free

Yes, just think what it would mean to walk down to Fred Ford's garage Christmas Eve morning, step into that brand new Essex car and drive out—and you the owner.

Some young man or lady is going to do that very thing. Who is it going to be? That depends altogether on circumstances.

The person who says to himself: "I am entitled to win that car; I have the pep and the energy; more than that I AM GOING TO DO IT."

The person who says that is the person who is going to get the Essex machine—and is that person not the one, after all You can be that person if you will only say "I can" and get into the game. There are many other valuable prizes being given away in the News' Greater Circulation Campaign, but the new Essex car, which retails regularly for $1,785, is the grand prize of the lot and one worth working for.

The Square Deal gasoline filling station, corner 12th and Broadway, notified the News this morning that the winner of the new Essex car in the News Greater Circulation Campaign could get the tank filled for the first time free of charge at their station.

Think of it, a car and a tank of gasoline for a Xmas present. Wouldn't that be joy enough for one Christmas?

NEW YORK PAPER SOLVES DYNAMITING

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—District Attorney Swann planned today to question all the men mentioned by the Evening World yesterday, in its "solution" of the Wall Street explosion of September 16, the motive of which was declared by the newspaper to have been revenge on the part of members of a house wreckers union against a rival organization, headed by Robert Brinall, central figure in the building trust investigation now under way here. Other theories also were advanced today by the police and department of justice office.

AMERICA MAY HELP SETTLE ADRIATIC FUSS

By the Associated Press
ROME, Nov. 12.—The Italian foreign minister has received from the Italian charge at Washington a telegram reporting that the American government has formerly declared it will be happy to approve any solution of the Adriatic question reached through direct agreement by Italy and Jugoslavia, it is announced by the semi-official Stefani Agency.
The American ambassador at Rome adds the agency had handed an identical communication to the Italian foreign office here.

Discrepits War Possibility.
PARIS, Nov. 12.—The foreign office stated today that predictions of a possible world war of Silesia, appearing in Polish newspapers, were "merely fanciful" and not worthy of consideration.

Health Officer Would Salvage Diseased Lives

Oklahoma City.—To salvage lives from the undertow of disease and ignorance and to so improve conditions that the children of Oklahoma may have a better chance for health and efficiency, is the purpose of the recent issue of the Health Bulletin, published by the State Health Department and edited by Dr. A. R. Lewis, state health commissioner. R. H. Wilson, secretary of the state board of public instruction, co-operated with Dr. Lewis in the construction of the Bulletin, which was prepared especially for school instructors and which has been sent out to every teacher of pupils in the state.
The Bulletin sets out that to promote health and efficiency in the schools, to bring about better conditions under which the teacher must perform her duties and to further the work of the Health Conservation Crusade, instructors in schools of the state should follow and practice the suggestions for prevention

SAYS SHIPPING BOARD WAS NOT CORRUPT

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Practices of the United States shipping board which lead to the present investigation by the Walsh congressional committee, have not been "corrupt," according to Commander Clement, executive assistant to Rear Admiral Benson, who was the principle witness at the continuation of the committee's hearing today.
"If there is grounds for criticizing the shipping board administration," Commander Clement declared, "it is upon the ground that a perfect co-ordination between the different departments had not been obtained."

Old Timer Says She's Gonna' Be A Rip-Snorter

The first freeze of the season visited upon Ada last night. Old settlers who keep track of such things are calling attention to the fact that the first freeze of the season last year also came on the night of November 11.
"She's gonna be a rip-snorter," one ancient Ada weather prophet declared, squirting a stream of tobacco juice from his mouth. "Y'ep, I can see by the elements that the mercury is gonna drop right out the bottom of the thermometer this winter, by gosh!"
Eskimos of Alaska are decreasing in population.

WHOLE STATE IN GRIP OF REAL WINTER WEATHER

A Temperature of 18 to 24
Degrees Is Predicted
For Tomorrow.

By the Associated Press
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 12.—Real winter held Oklahoma in its grip today.
Reports from over the setate indicated the mercury tumbled to between 20 and 30 degrees in various sections, the cold snap being accompanied by a raw biting wind from the northwest. Gas pressure was reported low in some sections. Cloudy and unsettled weather over the state today, with temperature tomorrow morning between 18 and 24 degrees, was forecast of the weather bureau here, but warmer weather is in store, the forecaster promised. Already, he said, it is warming up west of the Rockies and is raining on the Pacific coast.
"Somewhat warmer Saturday," was the prediction.
The cold wave is general east of the Rockies, according to reports to the weather bureau. Sheridan, Wyoming, reported ten degrees below zero this morning, the coldest spot in the country.
A minimum temperature of 22 degrees here this morning has resulted in low gas pressure. All industries here have been shut off from gas supply. J. F. Owens, general manager of the Oklahoma Gas and Electric company, announced today that only four million five hundred thousand cubic feet of gas were coming through the main from the cement field, compared with normal service of about sixteen million cubic feet. The line from the north field also is failing, he said, and it is supplying about the same amount of gas with its normal capacity nearly twelve million cubic feet. Owens expressed doubt that there would be sufficient gas to cook the evening meal.

Effort Will Be Made To Revive Interest In National Guard

"What has become of the national guard contingent, of which so much was said last August?" was the leading question put to an Evening News representative this morning. Not being able to answer the question an investigation was made to determine the status of that organization.
It was discovered that the guard had not lost any of the eight original members. It was also disclosed that no new members had been secured, and was admitted that very little had been done toward the securing of more members, however the statement was made that a special campaign will be started for building the guard up to the prescribed fifty members which have required before the members of the organization can be sworn in and made a part of the authorized guard.
H. C. Penny was prevailed upon to accept the captaincy of the organization last August, and Mr. Penny says that at that time he was promised the active support of the commercial organizations of the city in the matter of securing the required number. He also says that he has been very busy since that time and has not had the opportunity to do much personal work in the matter, and so far as he knows the commercial organizations which promised support have also neglected the matter.

WOULD COMPEL THRIFT IN AMERICA'S SCHOOLS

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Officials of the savings division of the treasury department conferred here today with a number of educators regarding plans for making the principle of the savings and investment of money a permanent and compulsory part of the American public school curriculum and for the use of government savings certificates as the practical medium for applying those principles.

Tonight partly cloudy. Not so cold in northwest portion. Saturday unsettled and warmer.

Pittsburg Soldiers Refuse to March Past Mayor's Stand

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 12.—Protest against the presence of E. V. Babcock, mayor, in the review stand because the city recently issued a permit for what they termed "a pro-German tag day," scores of overseas veterans, who took part in the Armistice day parade, refused to march past the stand. After vainly trying to make a speech which was drowned by the cries of spectators and marchers, Mayor Babcock left the stand and the parade proceeded. When the permit was granted for the tag day which was to raise money for children in Central Empires, it was greeted by a storm of protest from soldier organizations, and while Mayor Babcock refused to withdraw the permit, the society back of the movement finally decided to cancel its arrangements and collect no money. In the meantime pressure on the mayor was without result and last night he issued a statement, which read in part as follows:
"Whether right or wrong, the permit has been issued, and that he was the mayor of all the people of the city of Pittsburg."
This did not meet the demands of the soldiers and today when a line of automobiles carrying a thousand or more men who had been wounded in France, reached the reviewing stand on which stood the mayor, the parade stopped, men climbed out of the machines and the assembled crowd cheered. They made a detour of a block or two around the stand and then, took up the line of march as though nothing had happened.

Impossible To Make A Silk Purse Out Of A Shoat's Ear

He was just a dirty little negro boy but his crying caused the folks who lined the walks to look at him and his piteous condition held their gaze. He was scantily clad, the chocolate color of his skin showing in several places through his torn knee pants, and the little black feet and legs were bare. The chief source of his trouble seemed to be the sharp north wind which made the overcoats and other heavy clothing feel so comfortable and warm and all-sufficient to the spectators, but another cause of concern to the future Brooker T., might well have been personified in the giant frame of a strapping negro woman who dragged him down the walk and scolded him for complaining against the cold.

She wore a heavy cloak with an upturned fur collar; a knit glove adorned the hand that held his bare hand prisoner, and as with rapid stride she dragged him down the walk she was heard to say "C'mon heah chile, haint you got no pride a tall, don't you see a' white folks watchin' you?"

That nigger boy's real enemy was not the cold which numbed his feet and chapped his hands for these will be forgotten in some new found joys. His real danger lies in home environment which has damned the soul of many a boy before the age of accountability was reached.

Hunger Strikers Quit.

By the Associated Press
CORK, Nov. 12.—The hunger strike of the nine Irish prisoners in the Cork jail was called off today, the 94th day of the strike.

THAT OLD COAT WILL HELP TO KEEP SOMEONE WARM IF-

Have you any clothes to spare? If so, wouldn't you like to help keep someone warm during the cold days?

You can do so, and easily, too. Just send the clothes to Mrs. Orville Snead at Red Cross headquarters. She will see to it that they are placed where they will do the most good.

Did you notice the cake of ice on the little pools and puddles of water this morning? And did you hear the song of the north wind as it blew its chilly blasts out of the bleak, wintry north? To many who are feeling the pinch of want it was a song of woe. That old coat hanging in your locker, that old pair of shoes or that heavy wrap would have gone a long way toward making some unfortunate person comfortable.

Only last night, when the cold wind was at its height, a little child was seen scurrying down the street barefooted and with but a ragged piece of coat to keep its body warm.

There are many others like this one. Look around the house right now and see what you have to spare. We can all send a garment of some kind if we but take a moment to do so. And wouldn't it make you feel good to know that you have alleviated some little child's suffering, or made some unfortunate old person comfortable?

Read Mrs. Snead's appeal:
"We are having many calls for clothes. No doubt there are many families who have clothes that have been outgrown and yet not worn out. They could render a great service if placed where they are needed most."

"Children's clothes for all ages are needed badly. We have lots of calls for women's clothes, and some for the men. If you can get them to Red Cross headquarters yourself, it will save us the expense of transportation, and will enable us to give quicker relief."

"UNITED CHARITIES ASSN., Mrs. Orville, Snead, Secretary"

35 - MILE WIND PREVENTS HARDING FROM FISHING

Senator Gives Up Sport and Remains Indoors As Gale Blows.

By the Associated Press
POINT ISABEL, Tex., Nov. 12.—President-elect Harding's tarpon fishing was interrupted today by a 35-mile wind from the north that churned the Point Isabel fishing grounds into a field of foam and drove the temperature down to the shivering point. Deciding to stay ashore, the senator read and rested during the morning in his cottage over-looking the lagoons, but hoped before the day was over to take a motor trip to Brownsville for a game of golf. He expressed keen disappointment that unfavorable weather had overtaken his fishing adventure and said he expected to get a chance to try his luck once more before he leaves here early next week.
Harding's speech in Brownville yesterday was the only one on his engagement list during his stay here and he expects to do no work before his departure on the other matter awaiting his attention.
Mail is beginning to come here for him in great quantities, but his secretaries are filing most of it away and are giving immediate attention only to most urgent letters.

Mammoth Potato Is Grown in Vanoss Garden by Citizen

E. J. Mallory blew in to the Evening News office last night with the largest sweet potato in his possession that has been seen in Ada since the enabling act was signed. The potato was grown by H. B. Williams in his garden at Vanoss. When weighed on the News scales the big yam showed a total weight of 8 lb. 3 or, avordupois. Mr. Mallory states that the specimen he brought to Ada was the second in size of the potato grown by Mr. Williams this season and that the owner has in his possession another one somewhat larger than the one brought to Ada.

MAYOR SAYS ADA NEEDS SPEED COP

Would Protect Lives and Add to the City's Revenues.

"We need a traffic cop for Ada, but no funds are available for adding another man to our police force," said Mayor Gary Kitchens in an interview with the News yesterday. The number of cars in this city make such an addition to the force imperative, the mayor said, yet the city must continue to depend upon the regular force until the county excise board sees fit to make allowance for an additional man.

Approximately $1,000 has been taken in by the city in fines for violation of the speed ordinances during the past year. This amount was collected from seventy-five persons who exceeded the speed limit within the city.

Instances of flagrant violations of the speed ordinances are often noticeable on the principal streets of the city, but it is impossible for all of these to fall into the hands of the law, as the regular force has other duties to attend to as well as regulate traffic on the streets.

"A special traffic cop would more than earn his salary in additional fines collected, besides affording protection to those who must use our streets," the mayor said.
Joy riders, it seems, are the most frequent violators of the speed law. No later than yesterday a Dodge runabout was seen racing around through the business district. Two boys and two girls were crowded on the one seat. The driver seemed to find great sport in "giving her all she could take," apparently forgetting that he was jeopardizing the lives of the others in the car, as well as the lives of those who must use our streets.

This is the first announcement of the candidates in the Ada News Greater Circulation Campaign, which opened this week for a Christmas prize campaign with a brand new Essex touring car as the grand capital prize.

This announcement marks the real beginning of a race for nearly $3,000 worth of magnificent awards. The bars are up, and every active participant has right of way!

By looking over the representative—though short—list of candidates, you will likely see the name of a friend or acquaintance whom you would like to see win the Essex touring car, valued at $1785. If so, hand him or her your subscription now—right at the start, when encouragement counts the most.

Room for Others.

As there are eight valuable prizes to be awarded, beside the 20 per cent cash commissions guaranteed to all active non-prize winners, it will be seen at a glance, that there is an unexcelled opportunity for you in this campaign. The opening for live-wire workers is calling aloud.

There were a large number of other nominations received in this office which are not included in this list. In each case the nominee was notified by letter and requested to acknowledge its receipt. It is expected that some of these will be heard from within the next day or two and that the next published list will see new names added and interest in the race growing by leaps and bounds.

Credit Standing Wednesday.

The comparative voting strength of the various candidates will be published in Wednesday's News. All votes polled up to 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, November 16th, will be published opposite the names of the candidate and the one having the largest number will be placed first in the list, the one having the second largest number of credits second in the list, and so on.

Time is Limited. Get Busy.

Now is the time for those who are competing in this race to make the dust fly. Only three and a half weeks remain during which to secure the maximum number of votes for subscriptions—three and a half weeks to win or LOSE—for that is exactly what it means. After December 6th, there is a material decrease in the schedule of credits; and, after December 20th, there is a still further decline in the scale of credits—in fact, it is cut almost in half.

Our best advice to those who wish to win is to hurry every available subscription to the campaign department now while the big credits are in effect. Not to do this simply means that you are throwing golden chances away, chances that may bring you the prize Essex touring car, a free vacation trip to California, or something else equally attractive.

No Quitters Here.

You are "on the post" now and the pace is growing hot. Your ability and ambition is to be put to the test. Can you finish strong as you have started, with the best talent and the keenest wit in Pontotoc county pitted against you? You must certainly can if your courage does not fail you now. Who can finish victorious in the race of keen competition? If we know character at all, we opine that no such misery as a quitter will appear among those who are entered in the Ada News' campaign. Certainly the winners will be entitled to admiration for defeating such a field and as certainly will commendations be due to those who "die game."

Get in the race with a shout, for you are off in a bunch, and MAY THE BEST CANDIDATE WIN!

White Way Proposed on Main Street from Normal to Santa Fe

Secretary Walker of the Chamber of Commerce announced today that he is negotiating with several electric companies with the object in view of arriving at the probable cost of material to be used in the construction of a white way in this city. The figures will be based on the construction of this way from the Normal to the Santa Fe track, down Main street, and from Main to Twelfth street on Townsend avenue; thence to Broadway, and thence down Broadway to the Frisco tracks; also down Main to the Frisco tracks, down Townsend avenue. Four lights to the block on each side of the street will be placed on the streets in the business section of the city if the plan contemplated is put into execution. Also lights will be placed at the ends of the allies in the business section.

Mr. Linscheid, president of the Normal will cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce, and if the white way becomes an established fact he will ask the state to make an appropriation to cover the cost of continuing the white way around the Normal grounds.

BANKERS SEE EARLY RETURN TO NORMAL

Rain Given As Cause for Delay in Marketing Crops.

While farmers have not yet marketed the greater portion of their crops, and are still asking for extension of credits on a large scale, Ada bankers do not believe the result will be marked financial stringency. On the other hand, they express the opinion that conditions will return to near normal within sixty days.

As soon as the crops are marketed financial conditions will be easier, bankers say. A great many farmers have not yet liquidated their spring indebtedness, and many of the country banks have almost exhausted their borrowing capacity, it was stated. On the other hand, many farmers who are holding their wheat or cotton are disposing of livestock and in other ways raising money to pay off loans obtained earlier in the season.

Although the holding of crops has its effect in restricting credits, Oklahoma has other natural resources, such as oil, and minerals, that yield a large and steady revenue, which acts as a balance against the withholding of crops. Also, the bankers express unreserved confidence in the federal reserve system to prevent any future panic.

"I think the hard times propaganda was campaign ammunition more than anything else," said the president of one of the local banks today. "While the financial situation will probably be tight for some time, there is no cause to worry. As soon as the crops are marketed, these will of course be much more money in circulation, which will tend to loosen the money market."

He said that because of excessive loans and the inclination to hold crops credits naturally have been restricted. He said that he believed the next few months would see a return to near normal, as farmers no doubt will begin marketing their crops on a larger scale as soon as the rainy weather is over.

THE TOWN GOSSIP

IN YESTERDAY'S mail.

THERE WAS a letter for me.

POSTMARKED FROM Montreal.

AND I TRIED to remember.

WHO I knew in Montreal.

AND COULDN'T do it.

AND FINALLY opened the letter.

AND FOUND inside.

ONE OF the Town Gossips.

THAT HAD been clipped.

FROM THE Daily News.

AND WHICH I had written.

SEVERAL MONTHS ago.

AND A note accompanied it.

SIGNED BY "J. M. Nettleton."

AND HE went on to say.

THAT HE enjoyed reading it.

AND THAT he had found it.

WHILE HE was unpacking.

A CRATE of whiskey.

AND THAT the paper.

HAD BEEN stuffed.

BETWEEN THE bottles.

TO KEEP them from breaking.

AND HE had noticed.

THE TOWN Gossip.

AND HAD read it.

AND THOUGHT I might be interested.

IN KNOWING.

THAT THE paper.

HAD TRAVELED such a distance.

AND HE told the truth.

AND I really was interested.

AND FROM now on.

WHEN ANY of our advertisers.

ASK ABOUT our circulation.

I CAN tell them truthfully.

THAT WE circulate.

ALL OVER the continent.

BUT THAT isn't all.

THAT I'M interested in.

AND WHAT puzzles me is.

HOW THAT copy.

OF THE Daily News.

HAPPENED TO be stuck.

BETWEEN THOSE whiskey bot-

ties.

AND WHO owned the crate.

AND WHERE it was sent from.

AND A lot of other things.

AND ANYWAY.

IT WAS A lucky paper.

AND I know a lot of folks.

WHO WOULD give almost anything.

TO BE riding around.

ON THE inside.

OF A crate of whiskey.

I THANK you.

Mr. Scott served in the navy throughout the war, having enlisted in the navy at the beginning of the struggle. The explosion referred to in the citation occurred while he was making his fourth return trip across on the transport ship Mount Vernon. Seven thousand American soldiers had just landed at Brest and the ship was returning for another load when the German submarine torpedoed her, killing forty of the ship's crew. Through prompt and efficient action by Scott and his comrades the ship was saved and no other loss of life resulted.

ENID NEWS LEAVES DEMOCRATIC RANKS

ENID, Nov. 10.—E. C. Dunlap, publisher of the Enid Daily News, in an announcement declared that hereafter the policy of that newspaper would be independent-republican in national politics and independent in its dealings with county offices.

In the announcement, Dunlap gave a brief resume of his connection with the News, since its purchase, six years ago by him and Richard M. Elam. Elam, while he was connected with the paper, Dunlap says, had complete charge of the editorial policy. In 1918, Elam sold his interest to R. G. Grassfield and the policy of the paper was unchanged under its new editorial management. Last August, he says he purchased the interest of Grassfield and since that time has been responsible for the news and editorial policy of the paper.

Now that the election is over, he said, he would feel that, to continue as a democratic newspaper would be sailing under false colors and for that reason, the announcement of the change in politics was made.

Search Fails to Find Relatives

SAPULPA, Nov. 10.—A search which has lasted five days has failed to bring any information in regards to relatives of John Sheridan, killed here Monday night in an automobile accident. A telegram to people in Gradyview, Texas mentioned in a notebook found in the dead man's pocket, elicited the information that these people had moved to Arkansas and the search was transferred to that state. A message from Lincoln, Ark., signed by S. M. Sutton of that place said that he would not take possession of the body which is being held at a local undertaking establishment.

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary, the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour."—1 Peters 5-8.

ONE OF LIFE'S TRAGEDIES

We often think of tragedies as something that arise overseas and waste the substance of foreign peoples. We sometimes think of dark and shameful deeds that wipe out an entire family or bring reproach to a few as constituting the grimmest tragedies of human life. But on the streets of any city you may witness many tragedies every day you live.

Have you seen the wasted form of some old man or some old woman reeling to a daily task of arduous labor in order to win a daily morsel of bread? Then you have looked on one of the bitterest tragedies this old world has in store. The fire and zest and exuberant enthusiasm of youth are gone. The cup of hope has been drunk to its bitter lees. The dream of ambition that gilded the days of childhood has been broken. The future holds no promise of easier and better days. Yet the stern demand for subsistence must be heeded and the aged form wends wearily to an appointed task as the leaves of life keep falling one by one.

You can see him today in Ada. Once he was young and buoyant with the promises of life. He was inspired by the dream of wealth and station that would sometimes come at the call of industry. The sunlight poured its golden floods about him and the flowers of hope were blooming on every hand. But age came creeping on the unsuspecting, and now with strength and substance wasted, he engages in the last hopeless struggle to keep alive for just a little while.

Do not look with indifference on these unfortunate among God's children. In their person fate is presented one of the grim and sorrowful tragedies of life. The far flung line of empires may be reddening with fire of impending slaughter, but nowhere beneath the skies of heaven is there a spectacle more tragic than this. An old man or woman in want! The pity of it all!

This paper is glad to see that the republican landslide has defeated R. E. Echols for the office of Corporation Commissioner. We don't know the man who defeated him, but if a change was needed in any office in the state it was the corporation commissioner. Echols had the gas case settled before he came to Vinita last winter and it was a waste of money to come here. 'Ruh for the landslide if it has ridded the state of Echols.—Vinita Journal.

Mr. Echols also answered the appeal of Ada citizens for cheaper ice by increasing the price over what it was when the appeal was filed. The figures may have justified the increase but such a policy is not a very good vote getter.

One of our East Oklahoma counties has elected as sheriff a full-blood indian, who is under federal restrictions, has a guardian, and is said to be unable to transact any legal business without his guardian's consent. That is somewhat like the case of Houston B. Teehee of Tahlequah, who as registrar of the treasury signed billions of dollars worth of liberty bonds but could not sell an acre of his own allotment without the consent of the courts.

Miss Alice attributes her victory to prayer. Senator Harding invokes divine guidance in the troublous paths ahead of him. Mr. Harreld also seeks divine aid in his legislative experience. And it is probable that Governor Robertson has similar thoughts as he watches that republican legislature mobilizing for action.

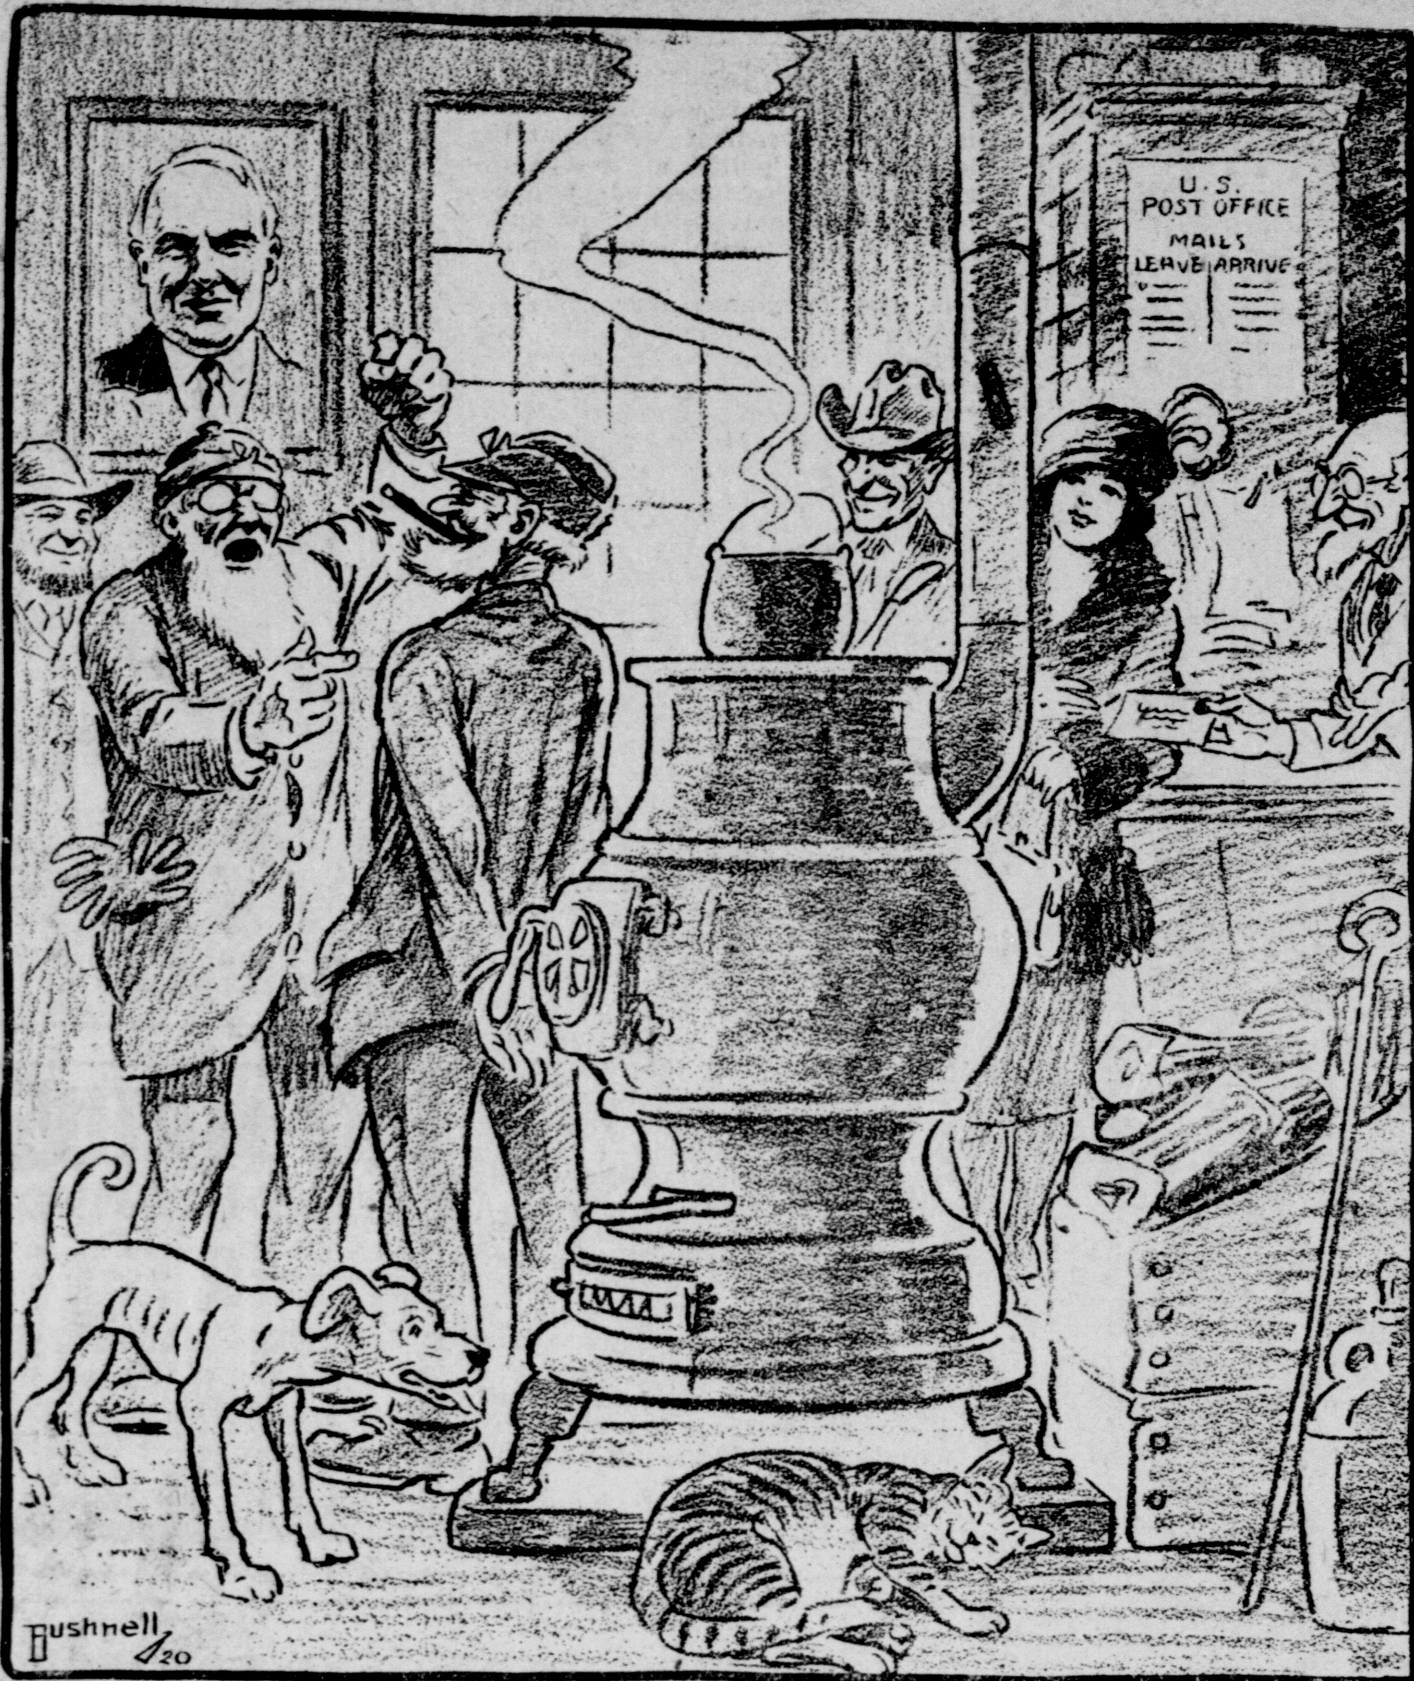

In this fourth congressional district that went republican last week by about 2,000 majority, the democratic county tickets in the various counties showed a combined majority of more than 2,000. The answer is easy—the people were against Cox and Ferris and the league of nations, but are still democratic.

"Miss Alice," our congresswoman from Muskogee had better enjoy all the front page publicity she is getting while the getting is good. There is mighty little advertising she will get after the noble Manuel Herrick hits the Washington white lights.

During the recent campaign we spent eight weeks in Oklahoma county and two weeks in Pontotoc county and both these counties went democratic by the largest majorities in their history. If we had only been born triplets, there would not be so many black spots on the political map this day.

Why don't they have the World's Series just after the national election? We need something to taper off on.

Elks Entertain.
"And beautiful maidens moved down in the dance. With magic of motion and sunshine of glance; And white arms wreathed lightly, and tresses fell from the crown of the bird in some tropical tree." —Whittier.

"Let joy be unconfined" was the spirit at the Elks club last night. The Elks were hosts at a dance in honor of the American Legion. Khaki uniforms of the former soldiers, and several sailors in blue were to be seen mingling in the crowd of merry dancers.

Music was furnished by the Huber orchestra of the McSwain theater. A delightful part of the evening's program was the singing of several selections by the Hooper quartet, who are playing at the McSwain theater this week with Seeman's 1920 Revue.

The clubrooms and big dance hall were attractively decorated for the occasion. The Elks are past-masters in the art of entertaining and making merry, and they contributed largely to the festivities which will make Armistice Day, 1920, linger in the pleasant memories of the past.

Mrs. Lawrence Entertains.
Mrs. R. O. Lawrence entertained the intermediate class of the Methodist church at her home at 512 South Townsend yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. There were twenty of the girls present and they spent the afternoon in playing games and telling stories and fortunes. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served after which the guests departed for home. All present enjoyed one of their happiest afternoons of this year.

Rev. and Mrs. Taylor Entertained
The ladies of the Missionary society of the Methodist church entertained with a luncheon Tuesday evening in honor of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Taylor who were returned to this pastorate for another year. The parlors were beautifully decorated having been converted into a shower of flowers. Plates were laid for about one hundred persons and after all fared sumptuously, a splendid program was rendered. Mrs. A. T. Boggan sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold," at the conclusion of which the entire body joined in the chorus, making it very beautiful and impressive. Mrs. T. H. Granger sang "Annie Laurie." Mrs. Ed Granger read "The Fall of Georgia Bassett," by Booth Tarkington, which was enjoyed by all. Mrs. C. L. Orr gave a "speech" she had made when a little girl, carrying her listeners back to the days of their childhood when "speeches" were given regularly every Friday afternoon. Short talks were given by Rev. Taylor and Blackburn, Mrs. Felix and Dr.

McNew, each one relating some striking story or joke to the amazement of those present.

The evening passed all too quickly, the guests feeling that they would never forget the pleasure that had been theirs during the entire entertainment and were so glad they could welcome Rev. and Mrs. Taylor again as their pastor for the year.

Dr. McKeever Will Return Nov. 24

The Shawnee Rotary club has offered a prize of $2500 which will be given to the Oklahoma city that proves to be the best city in which to live and rear a family. An attempt will be made by the city of Ada to win this prize. All competing cities have until Thanksgiving day next year to file their proof.

Despite the fact that there are several flag poles in the city of Ada, only two were to be seen yesterday with flags. They were on the Shaw building and the Drummond & Alderson buildings on South Broadway.

The scouts of Troop 1 will meet tonight at the scout headquarters next door to the Presbyterian church. All members are requested to be present as business of importance is to come before the meeting. The house will be called to order at 7 o'clock.

WARD SCHOOL NOTES

The Mothers club at the Willard school realized more than $158 from the tag day sale. At a meeting of the club last Friday $105 was subscribed in cash. This total of $263 will be used in the purchase of play ground equipment for the school.

The Board of Education has received two Kerker-Bender spiral fire escapes for installation at the high school. E. O. Rogers has been awarded the contract for setting them up and this will be done at once.

J. E. Hickman, superintendent of city schools furnishes the following data on the first month of school, which ended October 8.

Total enrollment in grades, white 1480; colored 56; total enrollment in high school 342, making a total enrollment of 1878.

For the same period last year the total enrollment was 1754, which shows a gain of 124 over last year. The reports show that there were 490 white pupils in the grades who were neither tardy nor absent during the period, and 138 in the high school with the same record.

During this period only one negro made the record of perfect attendance.

One teacher was out of school two half days, and two cases of tardiness were reported against the teachers.

Sixtyone visitors to the white schools are reported, six of them being members of the boards. Fire drills are reported on September 24 and October 2.

Some of the schools are crowded, and due to this fact the compulsory attendance law has not been rigidly enforced, but Supt. Hickman says that a control officer will be put on December 1, and he is of the opinion that the enforcement of the law will bring into the schools about five hundred persons of school age who for various reasons are not now attending. The scholastic enumeration which was taken last February shows 2743 persons in the city between the ages of 6 to 21 years. Non attendance without a legal excuse will entail a fine upon the parents or guardian of the child.

The new school building which is being erected between Ash and Oak avenues and 16th and 17th streets will not be ready for occupancy this school year and the enforcement of the attendance law will really work a hardship on the schools this year as most of them are already nearly filled to capacity, but the law must be enforced.

GO TO THEATRE

At the New Liberty.

With the instincts of old Japan firmly imbedded in her soul, yet with a heart throbbing with love for the friends she made in Washington, Yuki Onda is recalled to her native land to serve her country in its hour of need. Her heart and hand are pledged to Pierre LeBeau, a young attaché of the Austrian legation, and her best friends are the family of Senator Todd, the American ambassador at Tokio. But the Russo-Japanese war makes it necessary for the Nipponese to be careful of all foreigners and little Yuki, for reasons of state, is compelled to marry Prince Hagane, the daimyo of her clan.

Upon this basis of human affection, passionate love, filial duty and international intrigue Sydney McCall bases his popular novel "The Breath of the Gods," which has been pictured by Universal to serve as a starring vehicle for Tsuru Aoki (Mrs. Sessue Hayakawa) and which will be shown at the New Liberty theatre today.

As a star under the direction of Thomas Ince and as leading woman for her husband in a score of productions, Tsuru Aoki has gained wide renown, while her exquisite dramatic qualities have won for her the title of the Japanese Bernhardt. In "The Breath of the Gods" she is given the great opportunity for the exercise of her talents. As a result she is said to scale the heights of dramatic intensity.

At the McSwain Last Night.

The show presented last night at the McSwain theatre more than pleased the large audience that filled the theatre to capacity. It is one of the best that has been seen here for many days of its kind and was especially commented upon for the wholesome brand of comedy by many last night. The quartet was excellent, in fact everything offered last night was far above the average.

For a popular price attraction one cannot conceive of a better assemblage of talent to show for the prices asked. Packed houses should greet this clever aggregation at every performance, as today and Saturday finish their engagement here.

At the American

Once every so often a producer succeeds in creating a photoplay that excels in historic value, as well as in dramatic appeal. Of such quality is the feature, "Lahoma," which, in the lore of the frontier, is an abbreviation of Oklahoma.

Edgar Lewis, who has a long list of remarkable films to his credit, took his entire company to the plains of Oklahoma and succeeded in reproducing a vivid and graphic picture of pioneer days on the Western plains. The hazards and hardships of the "boomers," their feuds and fighting; their simple pleasures and lonely sorrows—in fact, their very lives are completely re-lived, re-born in "Lahoma." We wish every school child and a good many grown-ups could see this interesting, entertaining photoplay, which remains at the American theatre today.

The plot is distinctly thrilling. It measures up satisfactorily with the best current offerings. But the important point, and chief interest in the picture is just what the title states—"Lahoma"—Oklahoma before the days of oil booms and cattle, the story of homesteading pioneers, of roving Indians, of sun-blazed days and starlit nights.

Mr. Lewis has assembled an excellent cast, with the work of Russell Simpson, Little Peaches Jackson and Louise Burnham standing out prominently. Mr. Simpson's portrayal of the tender-hearted outlaw touches deep. Peaches Jackson is adorable as the child "Lahoma" and Louise Burnham is vivacious and pretty as the young girl. Others excellently fulfilling the requirements of their respective roles are Jack Perrin, Wade Boteler, Will Jefferis, Lurline Lyons, S. B. Phillips, H. M. Lindley, John Carlyle and Yvette Mitchell.

Only Three Farms In This County Are Now Quarantined

Pontotoc county is more nearly free of ticks than most of the counties of the state, according to B. C. Hansen of Coalgate, who is transacting business in this city today. Mr. Hansen is in a position to speak authoritatively on this subject, being state live stock inspector for Pontotoc, Cole and Johnson counties.

Mr. Hansen says that when he took charge of matters in this county a year ago there were thirty farms in the county who had stock under quarantine and today all of these cases are cleared up with the exception of three, and these three are located on the extreme southern edge of the county, and the ban will soon be lifted from them.

In commenting on the past year's activities in tick eradication, Mr. Hansen said that the remarkable progress made in this county was due largely to the interest taken in the matter by the farmers, and the close and consistent cooperation of the county commissioners of Pontotoc county, without whose aid the good showing would have been practically impossible.

This record is typical of the progress that has been made toward bettering farm conditions in Pontotoc county during the last decade. When the dipping law was first passed by the Oklahoma legislature, it was regarded by many influential and otherwise progressive farmers as a dastardly thing and a usurpation of personal rights, but under the new order of things Pontotoc county has changed from a tick infested, fever stricken region where thousands of dollars worth of stock needlessly died each year of course justly attributable to the tick pest, to a county in which healthy live stock is a leading feature, and the very men who fought the tick law have been the ones to profit most through its operation.

Muskogee Cops to Shoot All Street Dogs on Sight

Lo, and behold! A great discovery has come to light. Ada is not the only city troubled with the hobo kyidius, or street dog. Other places as well have the dog problem to contend with, including the city of Muskogee.

And lo and behold! Muskogee has solved the problem. We know our good and learned friend, Professor P. Alexis Ichabod, B. V. D., S. O. S., will sit up and take notice when we say that Muskogee has decided that the streets are not the place for dogs, be they highbrow dogs with long pedigrees, or just plain yellow curs. And Muskogee has said that they shall be shot on sight. No questions are to be asked the dog. Hurrah for Muskogee!

Here is what the Muskogee Daily Phoenix has to say about it. Read it, then think of the oodles of dogs roaming about on the streets of Ada:

"And in this town many dogs are found,

A lot of dogs there be,

Both mongrel, puppy, whelp and hound,

And curs of low degree."

But Goldsmith failed to complete this verse to suit the city council. If he had, the last lines would have been more pathetic and mentioned the Germans' favorite dish—sausage.

For yesterday the council passed an ordinance authorizing the police to shoot all dogs which are allowed to run the streets, either day or night.

More than that, the ordinance provides a $50 fine for the master who tolerates a dog he cannot keep on his own premises.

Because several little children have been bitten recently by vicious dogs, the matter was brought to the attention of R. P. Harrison, city manager, and the councilmen.

Although the license may have been paid on the dog, unless he is kept at home, the police soon will have him. A muzzle will not save the puppy's life, either.

There's only one chance for the person who wants to keep a dog within the city limits—keep him at home.

The ordinance will go into effect this morning.

OKMULGEE HIGH DOWNS ADA BOYS

Locals Lose Armistice Day
Football Game By Score of 14 to 0.

Ada high school lost to Okmulgee yesterday, 14 to 0, in one of the hardest fought and most interesting games played by either team this year. The Ada boys played with a vim but were unable to make sufficient gains to put the ball across the line.

The teams surged from one side of the field to the other, making short gains, but never at any time was either side able to win a big advantage over the other.

The game started with Ada kicking off to the visitors, who fumbled the ball which was covered by an Ada player. They were unable to make any progress however, and the Okmulgee team took the ball. For most of the first half the game seemed in favor of the visitors, who broke through the line twice for long gains and by a series of line plunges were able to carry the ball over. Twice in the first half the visitors scored, making the score of 14 to 0 at the close of the first half.

The second half was harder fought and more in favor of the Ada boys, who were able to make several passes and long end runs. This half was played more in the center of the field neither side was able to gain an advantage over the other. The Ada boys rallied in the last few minutes of the game but the whistle blew before they were able to score.

These teams played on the local grounds last Thanksgiving with a score of 0 to 0. The visitors were much heavier and outmatched the Ada boys, who, despite the odds against them, played a good game and made a good showing.

The proceeds of the game above expenses were divided between the American Legion boys and the high school athletic fund.

The lineup:

Okmulgee	Pos.	Ada
Lawson	RE	Derrick

FARMER FINDS FIELD OF ZINC

Rich Specimen of Ore Is Found Three Miles
From Ada.

Some of the finest lead and zinc ore ever seen in Oklahoma was brought to Ada this morning and is now on display at the Evening News office. The ore was found by a well known farmer of this county on his farm only three miles from Ada.

The ore was discovered accidentally by the owner of the farm and was located only three feet below the earth's surface. Quite a quantity of the mineral was brought to Ada by the discoverer and left on exhibition at several different places including the Evening News office. Men familiar with lead and zinc mining in Missouri and Oklahoma say that the local product is one of the finest specimens they have ever seen.

The discovery of this mineral ore in the vicinity of Ada opens up a new field of possibility here. Whether we have a new field of mineral of wide extent or whether the quantity of ore is insignificant are questions of deep interest. That the ore already found possesses remarkable richness is evident. That it has been found at the very surface of the earth shows that it can be mined at a trivial cost, if it is found in any paying quantity.

zinc market in the United States is practically dead. The bottom fell out of the market at the signing of the armistice and has not yet shown any signs of recuperation. The ore now being used by the American mills is Mexican ore, mined by cheap labor and sold to American competition. But it is believed that an embargo will soon be placed on Mexican ore and the American market revived sufficiently to start mining operations in the fields of Missouri and Oklahoma.

In the meantime a thorough test of the local situation will undoubtedly be made at an early date. It will be known before very long whether we have a real field of lead and zinc in Pontotoc county or whether the ore found is just an outcropping of no real value.

Heartburn, heaviness in the stomach, bloated feeling, coated tongue, bad breath, dizziness and vertigo (blind staggers) can be quickly relieved by Prickly Ash Bitters. Men who have used it say they can eat heartily without misery, where before they tried it the most healthful food seemed to get them out of fix. Price $1.50 per bottle. Sold by Gwin & Mays Drug Co. OH! OH! HERE'S END OF OUR HOME BREW

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Prohibition enforcement officers throughout the country have been instructed to prevent the sale of malt and hops to others than bakers and confectioners, but details of the order which tightens the ban on home brewing were lacking today.

In the absence of Commissioner Kramer, officials at the prohibition enforcement bureau said the sale of hops and malt as component ruled to be in violation of the Volstead act. They would not discuss construction placed on the law nearly two months ago.
